Operations on $p$-groups are basically homomorphisms

Peter Mayr

JKU Linz, Austria

I will explain the statement in the title and give a proof using some basic facts from the representation theory of groups. Then I will apply it to obtain efficient algorithms for several computational problems (closure, membership, size,...) on subpowers of expansions of finite $p$-groups.