

Parking functions and factorisations of permutations

Thierry Lévy (Université Pierre et Marie Curie, Paris, France)

Abstract. In the course of the study of the limiting distribution of the eigenvalues of a unitary Brownian motion, one is led to enumerating certain paths in the symmetric group. I will present a bijective enumeration of the paths of interest, which involves analogues of parking functions.